

What's Happening

Entertainment

<http://www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu/eventsindex.html>

Free lecture by 'Kite Runner' author Thursday, Oct. 20

Physician and writer Khaled Hosseini, author of the best-seller, "The Kite Runner," will speak Thursday, Oct. 20 in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center as part of the university's 'Preface' shared reading program. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. and the lecture begins at 7:15 p.m. in Harman Hall, and is free and open to the public.

U Jazz Band plays swing dance Friday, Oct. 21

Head to a free dance concert Friday, Oct. 21, featuring original swing-era tunes played by the Cal Poly University Jazz Band No. 1. The dance will be from 8 to 11 p.m. in Chumash Auditorium in the University Union on campus. Free swing dance lessons will be given at 7 p.m. More

Get your game face on for football Oct. 22

KSBY is airing the Cal Poly vs. Montana football game Saturday Oct. 22. The game will be broadcast beginning at 11:30 a.m. live from Washington-Grizzly Stadium at the University of Montana.

Campus Administrative Policies update

Cal Poly is undertaking a comprehensive review of its administrative policies that will result in a new collection of "Campus Administrative Policies" (CAP), published on the Web and in hard copy format. CAP will take the place of the pre-existing Campus Administrative Manual (CAM).

The CAP Ad Hoc Editorial Coordination and Review Committee ("CAP Committee") has recently considered several proposed Campus Administrative Policies that are now posted for campus comment as draft policies on the CAP Website:

<http://policy.calpoly.edu/capdraft/draftTOC.htm>

Read more about the CAP updates in this week's expanded online edition of Cal Poly Report at:

http://www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu/cpreport/05reports/oct_19.html

Cal Poly shines with third place finish in Solar Decathlon

Cal Poly's solar house and student team, Solar CalPoly, won third place at the international Solar Decathlon competition in Washington, D.C. The University of Colorado took first place, followed by Cornell University in second, and Cal Poly in third. Some 18 universities from the United States, Canada and Europe competed in the event.

More: www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu

Sign up for staff locker raffle in the Rec Center

The Kinesiology Center will be taking names for a raffle for the Staff Lockers beginning Thursday, Oct. 21. All current locker users and hopefuls will need to come by the Kinesiology Center and sign themselves up for this year's raffle. For details call ext. 6-2243. Those wanting Rec Center lockers must sign up for the raffle by Thursday, Oct. 27.

Mark your calendar: campus flu shot clinic offered Nov. 2

Employment Equity & Faculty Recruitment and Maxim Health Systems will offer a Flu Shot Clinic, on Wednesday, Nov. 2, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in UU-220. Both Influenza (flu) and Meningitis (pneumonia) immunizations will be available to all faculty and staff. For more information, call ext. 6-6770.

Submit winter textbook adoptions to El Corral by Friday

In order to make sure books and materials arrive in time for winter quarter, El Corral bookstore is asking faculty to submit adoptions of textbooks (including course packs) by Friday, Oct. 21. Faculty and staff can use the new online faculty adoptions Web site. All users need a Cal Poly User ID and Password (available from the courseware office or department coordinator). To use the site:

- log on to www.elcorralbookstore.com
- Click on "Faculty & Staff"
- Click on "On-line Faculty Adoptions"

Those needing help with adoptions, materials list, or have questions about course packs can contact the bookstore's courseware office at ext. 6-1171 or log on to www.elcorralbookstore.com.

Employment

State: The official listing of staff and management vacancies is posted on www.calpolyjobs.org. To apply, go online and complete the application form. Applicants needing assistance may contact Human Resources at ext. 6-2236.

State: The official listing of staff and management vacancies is posted on www.calpolyjobs.org. To apply, go online and complete the application form. Applicants needing assistance may contact Human Resources at ext. 6-2236.

#100725 - Vice President for University Advancement, Administrator IV. Open until filled. Review begins: Dec. 2.

Faculty: Candidates are asked to visit our online employment Web site at www.calpolyjobs.org to complete an application and apply for any of the positions shown below. Please submit all requested application materials as attachments to your online application, unless otherwise specified in the ad.

#100720 - Tenure Track Position(s), Economics Area, Orfalea College of Business (ext. 6-2783). Review Begins: Nov. 30.

Foundation: Cal Poly Foundation is a separate corporation operating in concert with the university to provide a diverse range of services and resources to students, faculty and staff. For an application, visit Human Resources in the Foundation Administration Building, check the Web site at www.cpfoundation.org or call ext. 6-7107.

Project Administrator, Research and Graduate Programs, $75,000-$95,000. Review of applications begins Oct. 28.

DRC retirements coming Oct. 21, 28

Two long term employees from the Disability Resource Center have announced their retirements. After 21 years of service to Cal Poly, Donna Weltmer's last day will be Friday, Oct. 21. At Donna's request, DRC is having a good-bye potluck with her student staff. Be sure to call or come by the Student Services Building to say good-bye before then.

The last work day for Shelley Aleshire, an academic advisor with DRC for 14 years, will be Friday, Oct. 28. DRC is hosting a good-bye reception for Shelley in room 224 of the Student Services Building 124 on Thursday, Nov. 3, from 2-4 p.m. Please join us.

Former Congressman Panetta to open Provocative Perspectives 2005 speaker series Oct. 28

Leon Panetta, former U.S. representative and chief of staff to President Bill Clinton, will come to Cal Poly on Friday, Oct. 28, to open the 2005 Provocative Perspectives speakers' series. Panetta, who was elected to serve the Central Coast for nine congressional terms, will speak on the topic of leadership and contemporary issues at 7:30 a.m. in the Vista Grande Café. The event (including breakfast) is free and open to the public; however, reservations are required. For more information or to make reservations, call Liz Cofer at ext. 6-0327.

Special Ed Program awarded Dept. of Education Grant

The U.S. Department of Education has awarded the Special Education Program in Cal Poly's College of Education a grant that will help the university educate future teachers of students with disabilities. The four-year, nearly $777,000-grant will help students earn degrees as California credentialed special education teachers for students with mild to moderate disabilities.

More: www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu

Engineering gets $1 million NSF grant

Cal Poly's Materials Engineering Department has received a $1 million grant from the National Science Foundation to redesign its materials engineering education program. "The 're-engineering' of the Materials Engineering degree curriculum is intended to attract and retain more women and minorities while preparing all students to solve increasingly complex global problems," according to Materials Engineering Department Chair and Professor Linda Vanasupa. The Materials Engineering Department and its Industrial Advisory Board have been exploring new teaching methods and curriculum since 2002.

More: www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu

Get a fresh start Mondays at student produce market!

The Student Produce Market offers fresh fruits and vegetables Mondays from 4:30-6:30 p.m. at Cerro Vista Apartments. Citrus, avocados, organic produce, honey, flowers, plants, Cal Poly meats, as well as other products made on campus are for sale. The Market is held behind the Cerro Vista Community Center, on Cerro Vista Circle, up the hill from the entrance to Poly Canyon. Contact Alicia Clifford at ext. 6-6791 for more information.